

Aztec Airlines

Aztec Airlines was based in El Paso, Texas operating from September 7, 1966 into 1967. The carrier provided a route from El Paso to Las Cruces and Silver City, New Mexico using a Piper Aztec aircraft. Aztec Airlines also operated from El Paso to Douglas/Bisbee, Arizona, a route vacated by American Airlines at that time.