

Desert Airlines

Desert Airlines was based in Mesa, Arizona and provided commuter airline flights on an Albuquerque - Gallup - Winslow - Flagstaff - Phoenix - Mesa, Arizona route beginning on October 8, 1979. At Flagstaff, connecting flights provided service to Sedona and the Grand Canyon, Arizona. The carrier operated Piper Navajo aircraft. Service was suspended in April, 1980.

Desert Airlines Piper Navajo Chieftain.